

.....“ We’re trying to make sure our customers have the best in parts at any hour of day or night. ” see page 6 >>

+ first gear

Lost & Found

Corn mazes are as popular as they’ve ever been, thanks in part to what happened last year at Connors Farm.

It was the call that “sparked a nationwide maze craze,” says Bob Connors, owner of Connors Farm, just north of Boston. Last October, a frightened couple and their infant got lost in Connors’ Salem Village–themed maze. Somewhat panicked, they called 911. The local canine unit sped to the scene, and the couple was quickly found and rescued. >>