

The Beckner Orchard lays on the Loess Hills along the Missouri River, where the topsoil can be as much as 100 feet deep. The farm specializes in peaches but also has apples, sweet corn, other vegetables and hay.